WELCOME

FOODIE FANS

This year the Bishop Auckland Food Festival is even bigger with even more to see. With an exciting new space so make sure you take a good look around everything we have on offer. Over 150 of the region's fabulous food and drink producers have joined us to offer a delicious selection for you to try and buy. We also have tons of other activities - a host of top guests in the Cookery Theatre, on our Market Place stage and also in our book signing area. The fabulous Stefan Gates has his own fantastic live show in our new area! We have workshops including Gingo (this year's even better Gin School), Beer & Bites too. For families we have great hands on activities including Little Dot Dishes Cookery workshops, potting and planting with Incredible Edibles, activities with Northumbrian Water and more!

GINGO

NEW FOR 2019

In Association with FEVER-TREE SAVOUR

Get ready for this year's Gin School as it takes a new twist: GINGO. Get your eyes down and glasses at the ready - because we're going to take you on a GINspirational journey while playing a quintessential British past time: bingo. Book one of our GINGO sessions on Saturday 12noon & 3pm | Sunday 12noon & 3pm

Tickets are £12 each and included G&Ts.

Last Minute TICKETS

Tickets for the Celebrity Cookery Theatre - available from the box office outside Town Hall. Stefan Gates Live - buy at the box office or the family marquee and Little Dot Dishes will be available on the day from their stand. Limited tickets available - tickets are sold on a first come first served basis and are subject to availability. Book early to save disappointment.

Pay a visit to AUCKLAND PROJECT

The whole family can get involved in Bishop Auckland's new Incredible Edible initiative at The Auckland Project's stand located in it's marquee at North Bondgate. Fun, hands-on activities will run regularly throughout both days aimed at children aged 3-11. Each session just under an hour.

Includes: - Planting seeds to create 'crazy hair' pots. Take your pot home and watch its hair grow. Sessions are: - 10.30am, 11.30am, 1.30pm, 2.30pm and 3.30pm both days Spaces are limited and booking is essential, to reserve a complimentary space come along to The Auckland Project's Incredible Edible stand. All children taking part must be accompanied by an adult.

BEER & BITES

Beer, bites and banter. Three things you'll get when the North East's craft brewers take you on a journey of beer tastings. Plus chef Ronald Robson will be chatting to guests about the best bites to pair with. This interactive beer tasting combines brewers' tales, tastings and brings in producers - to showcase you the perfect beer and bites pairing. Book a session Saturday: 1.30pm | Sunday: 1.30pm. Tickets are £12 each.
